Description

The mountains free you from worn habits and open up new perspectives. Here you can let your ideas run free. Fill up on motivation and long-lasting training. As an event hotel in Italy, the Tenne Lodges provide the perfect setting for results that are worth your while. The 70 m² seminar room offers space for up to 40 creative minds to exchange ideas and brainstorm. A laptop, projector, audio system, microphones, DVD and SAT system for TV as well as a screen and flipchart are available. We also rent out another seminar room for up to 70 people right across at the valley station of the skiing and hiking area. Starting from winter 2024 we offer an additional location for up to 250 people up on the mountain in the Summit Mountain Club. After the barrage of ideas, the participants can relax in a comfortable place, move around in the mountains and enjoy the input.
