Special features & further information

A peaceful garden awaits you in the beating heart of Kitzbühel. In it, the fragrant flowers and herbs of the local alpine mountains sway, a pond reflects the blue of the sky and a unique blossom of perfect guest culture has been shining for a hundred years: the heather.

Under one roof - or rather under the roofs, dormers and turrets of the ensemble, in the covered outdoor seating and under the foliage of the walkways - the Erika unites the most beautiful sides of Kitzbühel: nature and originality combine with refined taste. The dignified interior with its discreet islands of peace and retreats goes hand in hand with the generosity of an open house, where locals and guests meet in the bar and lounge.

And in our universally praised cuisine, international refinement and Tyrolean heartiness complement each other to form a wonderful synthesis. The connection with the land and its people determines all aspects of our actions and thus we combine the highest guest culture with sustainable benefits for people and nature.
